D. W. Hildreth Receives Message from Saratoga

D. W. Hildreth received a telegram yesterday noon from Saratoga, Fla., which reads:

Editor D. W. Hildreth, Newport, Vt.: We are thinking of you today and looking forward to the time when we may have the pleasure of meeting you in Saratoga, on the most beautiful bay in America, where a warm welcome awaits you and your friends.

City of Saratoga. This is a most courteous and gracious welcome from this hospitable little Southern city to one who is about to become a resident.

To be figuratively offered the keys of the city is a charming bit of Southern hospitality and friendliness.

Mr. Hildreth has bought a valuable property in Saratoga city, with a wonderful water front, and he intends to develop and beautify it.

Mr. and Mrs. Hildreth leave about Oct. 15, but their many friends hope to see them back as usual, with the coming of another summer.

of the arrangements for holding the rally, and will preside at the meeting in the Armory. Hon. James Hartness, Republican nominee for governor, and Hon. Porter H. Dale, renominated to Congress on the Republican ticket, will be here to address the assembly. They are expected to be the only out-of-town speakers.

The state committee announced today that William Howard Taft would be in Vermont soon to speak in three different towns and cities, St. Johnsbury, Brattleboro and St. Albans. The exact dates have not as yet been decided on. It was also stated that Lieut. Governor Marion S. Stone would also be a speaker at the St. Johnsbury meeting, at which Mr. Taft will be a guest.

GIRL SLAIN WHILE RIDING WITH FIANCE

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 4—Miss Florence Barton, 24, daughter of K. L. Barton, president of a shoe manufacturing company, was shot and killed mysteriously while riding yesterday in a motor car with Howard K. Winter, her fiance. The shooting took place on a lonely road in the suburban residential section. Winter told the authorities he had stopped his car to light a cigar when three men approached in another car. One man asked the direction to another town and when he had been told, Winter said, the man leaped on the running board with a revolver in one hand and fired several shots. One struck Winter in the left arm and another wounded Miss Barton over the heart. The assailant fled and Winter drove to a country residence, summoned help and took Miss Barton to a hospital where she died.
